

Die Stigting VOC
in samewerking met die
Departement Geskiedenis Universiteit van Stellenbosch
en die
NZAV Nederland,
bied aan 'n

INTERNASIONALE KONFERENSIE OOR DIE VOC
gehou op
Stellenbosch

1 - 3 April 2002

Belangstellendes en akademici word hartlik uitgenooi om hierdie Konferensie by te woon en ook referate voor te lê. Die Verenigde Oos-Indiese Kompanjie (VOC) is volgende jaar 400 jaar gelede gestig en terselfdertyd is dit die 350ste herdenking van die begin van die VOC-se nedersetting aan die Kaap. Die Stigting VOC het reeds lankal 'n soortgelyke konferensie in die vooruitsig gestel en met die oog op die herdenkings van 2002 is besluit dat 'n konferensie die gepaste wyse sou wees om dié gedenkwaardige jaar mee in te lui. Historici in Suid-Afrika, Mauritius, Nederland, België, Indonesië, Australië en Hawaii het reeds te kenne gegee dat hulle belang stel om referate te lewer. Hulle verteenwoordig 'n interessante verskeidenheid van vakgebiede soos onder meer bewaring, argeologie, kerk- en kultuurgeskiedenis, genealogie, en die taal- en letterkunde.

Persone wat volledige inligting verlang en 'n uitnodiging wil ontvang, moet asseblief dr Jan Visagie by tel +27 (021) 887 1770, of dr Con de Wet by tel +27 (021) 886 6820, of dr Chris Venter by tel +27 (021) 808 2179 skakel. U is ook welkom om boodskappe per e-pos te stuur aan Jan Visagie by asiv@xsinet.co.za of per gewone pos te rig aan hom te Buitekringweg 5, Stellenbosch 7600.

Die Van Ewijck-Stigting, Kaapstad, die Departement Kerkgeskiedenis, Universiteit van Pretoria, en die Universiteit van Stellenbosch word hartlik bedank vir finansiële en ander ondersteuning.

-oo0oo-

The VOC Foundation
in conjunction with the History Department
University of Stellenbosch

and the

NZAV Nederland
will present an

International conference on the VOC
at Stellenbosch from
1 – 3 A P R I L 2002

Academics and others interested in the VOC are cordially invited to submit papers and to attend the above Conference. The 400th anniversary of the founding of the Dutch East India Company (VOC) in 1602, and the 350th anniversary of its settlement at the Cape in 1652, will both be commemorated in 2002. This Conference is one of a number of commemorative occasions by which the VOC Foundation hopes to draw attention to the VOC and its activities world wide. Academics from the Netherlands, Belgium, Mauritius, Indonesia, Hawaii, Australia and South Africa, representing a variety of research areas like archaeology, history, cultural history, conservation, religion, language and literature, have already indicated their interest in the Conference.

For further particulars as well as an application form, please write to:

Dr Jan Visagie, 5 Buitekring Road, Stellenbosch 7600, South Africa, or e-mail him at asiv@xsinet.co.za or Telephone Dr Jan Visagie at +27 (021) 887-1770 or Dr Con de Wet at +27 (021) 886 6820, or Dr Chris Venter at +27 (021) 808-2179.

The Van Ewijck Foundation of Cape Town, the Department of Church History of the University of Pretoria and the University of Stellenbosch are all cordially thanked for financial and other support.

-oo0oo-

Call for papers

National Conference of the Genealogical Society of South Africa

23 and 24 September 2001 (Heritage weekend)

at the

Vaal Triangle Faculty of the Potchefstroom University for Christian Higher Education, Vanderbijlpark.

Theme

*Construct and tradition: Family history and genealogy in twenty first century
South Africa*

Conference participation:

An objective of the conference is to get professional academics as well as amateurs with an interest in genealogy and family history to participate in proceedings.

Papers in any of the 11 official languages of South Africa can be presented on themes ranging from the theory of genealogy and family history, practical research information, interdisciplinary applications as well as subject related themes, e.g. specific family histories.

Abstracts of about 250 words must be submitted to the Conference Secretariat GSSA

gskasb@puknet.puk.ac.za or fax 016 910 3503

by 31 July 2001

Conference fee GSSA members R250.00

Non-members R350.00

For information contact

Annetjie Blignaut gskasb@puknet.puk.ac.za or Johann Tempelhoff
gskjwnt@puknet.puk.ac.za

Tel 016 910 3502/3 weekdays between 08:00 and 13:00

Oproep vir konferensie bydraes

Nasionale konferensie van die Genealogiese Genootskap
van Suid-Afrika

23 en 24 September 2001 (Erfenisnaweek)

by die

Fakulteit Vaaldriehoek

Van die Potchefstroomse Universiteit vir Christelike Hoër Onderwys,

Vanderbijlpark

Tema

*Konstruk en tradisie: Familiegeskiedenis en genealogie in die een-en-twintigste
eeuse Suid-Afrika*

Konferensie deelname

‘n Doelwit van die organiseerders is om professionele akademici asook amateurs met ‘n belangstelling in genealogie en familiegeskiedenis aan verrigtinge te laat deelneem.

Voordragte in enige van die 11 amptelike landstale kan gelewer word oor onderwerpe wat handel oor die teorie en metodologie van genealogie en familiegeskiedenis, praktiese navorsingsinligting, interdisiplinêre toepassings asook toegepaste temas, soos bv. Die geskiedenis van spesifieke families.

Opsommings van sowat 250 woorde moet ingedien word by die sekretariaat van die GGSA-konferensie

gskasb@puknet.puk.ac.za of faks 016 910 3503

teen 31 Julie 2001

Konferensiefooi vir GGSA lede R250.00

Nie-lede R350.00

Vir meer inligting kontak

Annetjie Blijnaut gskasb@puknet.puk.ac.za of Johann Tempelhoff
gskjwnt@puknet.puk.ac.za

Tel. 016 910 3502/3 weksdae tussen 08:00 en 13:00

International Oral History Association

In collaboration with the Faculty of Human Sciences of the University of Natal, Pietermaritzburg

The power of oral history: Memory, Healing and Development
XIIth International Oral History Conference
Pietermaritzburg, KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa

June 24-27, 2002

CALL FOR PAPERS

<http://www.hs.unp.ac.za/ioha2002>

Conferences Sub-themes:

Trauma, memory and reconciliation / Preservation and dissemination of oral archives / Oral history and digitisation / Oral history in teaching and learning/ Gender in oral history / Ethnicity and identity / Land claims and oral testimonies / Religion and memory / Stories of warfare, famine and migration / Sickness and disability in oral history

Proposals are invited from around the world for contributions to the XIIth International Oral History Conference. The proposals may be for a conference paper, a workshop session or a thematic panel. Only the papers with a clear focus on oral history will be taken into consideration.

If you are interested, please send us a single-page proposal including an outline of your paper and the following details: name, affiliation, postal address, e-mail address, phone and fax numbers.

Deadline for proposals: July 1, 2001

The Conference Committee will confirm acceptance or rejection of your proposal by September 1, 2001. The final paper of no more than 15 double-spaced pages, must reach the organisers before December 15, 2001, for publication in the Conference Proceedings.

Papers must be written in English or in Spanish. If possible abstracts in the other language should be provided. At the conference, there will be simultaneous translation (in English, Spanish and, on some occasions, in Zulu and Sesotho) for the plenary sessions. Efforts will be made to provide informal consecutive summary translation during workshop sessions.

Send proposal to:

IOHA 2002 Organising Committee
c/o Professor Philippe Denis,
Oral History Project, School of Theology, University of Natal
PB X 01, Scottsville 3209, South Africa
Phone: (27) 33 260 50 64
Fax: (27) 33 260 58 58
E-mail: ohp@nu.ac.za.

Enquiries to: Verena Alberti (Latin America: VERENA@fgv.br), Anne Ritchie (Northern America: A-RITCHIE@nga.gov); Tayba Sharif (Africa: tayba@aucegypt.edu), Nükhet Sirman (Asia: sirman@boun.edu.tr), Mercedes Vilanova (Europe: vilanova@trivium.gh.ub.es), Janis Wilton (Oceania: jwilton@metz.une.edu.au).

International Oral History Association

Invitation for Membership

The International Oral History Association (IOHA) was formally constituted in June 1996 at the IXth International Oral History Conference in Goteborg, Sweden. The Association provides a forum for oral historians around the world, in order to foster international communication and cooperation and a better understanding of the nature and value of oral history. Benefits of membership include:

- concessionary rates for the biennial international oral history conferences
- copies of Words and Silences, the annual, bilingual (English and Spanish) Bulletin of the IOHA (containing oral history reports, an index of oral history journals from around the world, special items and commentaries on oral history issues)
- access to the IOHA home page on the world wide web
- voting rights at the Association's General Meetings and Council elections
- active participation in the international community of oral historians.

Membership is open to any individual or institution supporting the goals and objectives of the Association. The Association is governed by a Council elected at the General Meeting held at the biennial international oral history conference. The President of the Association is Marieta de Moraes Ferreira from Brazil and current Council members come from Australia, Brazil, England, Germany, New Zealand, South Africa, Spain, Sudan, Turkey and the United States.

For membership enquiries e-mail the Association's secretary and treasurer, Almut Leh (almut.leh@fernuni-hagen.de).

Individuals: 90DM / 46

Institutions 180DM / 92

Students 45DM / 23